PREFACE.

THE citizens of Cambridge are presented with the eighth number of the Directory, after an intermission of one year. The delay in its publication has been unavoidable, but it will be found to be none the less useful; and is probably more correct than it would have been had it appeared earlier. Few probably, are aware of the amount of labor and care requisite in the publication of a work of this nature. We have endeavored to furnish, besides the Directory complete, a list of all the officers connected in any way with our City Government, all the Literary, Religious and Benevolent Societies, the various Banks and other corporate companies, a complete list of the members of the present Congress, and other useful matter for every day reference. The Map has been revised and new streets added. We have enlarged and otherwise improved this number, and hope it may meet with general acceptance. We tender thanks to those of our friends who have assisted us in our labors.

Established in 1853.

His Honor, the Mayor, ex officio, Chairman.

Z. L. Raymond, Zelotes Hosmer, Anson Hooker, Abraham Edwards, T. B. Bigelow, Wm. A. Saunders, Commissioners.

Henry H. Eames, Superintendent.

The city authorities of Cambridge, in 1853, purchased twenty-four acres of land in the vicinity of Mount Auburn, and bordering on Charles River, to be devoted to the purposes of a Cemetery for the citizens of Cambridge. It is a lovely spot, and well suited to the purpose for which it was purchased. Avenues have been made in various directions through the greater portion of the grounds. The lots contain three hundred square feet, and are sold at ten cents per foot, equal to $30 per lot. Two hundred and twenty-six lots have already been sold. A large section has been laid out for a public burying ground, for those who are unable to purchase lots; one hundred and forty-five have been interred in this part of the Cemetery.

MOUNT AUBURN CEMETERY.

The Cemetery contains about 125 acres. There are already more than 2,500 lots. The recent clearing of trees has opened some new and beautiful locations. The old house formerly occupied by the Superintendent, and all out buildings, have been recently removed, and all that delightful portion of the grounds will probably be devoted to the wants of the public.

The Superintendent may always be found at the Cemetery, except on Saturday mornings, when he is in attendance at the Secretary's Office.

Tickets of admission for carriages may be obtained of the Secretary, at 39 Court street, Boston.
